

CALL FOR WORKSHOP PROPOSALS

Fourth International Conference on Wireless Communications and Signal Processing

October 25-27, 2012, Huangshan, Anhui, China

Overview: The annual International Conference on Wireless Communications and Signal Processing (WCSP) aims to provide a forum that brings together International researchers from academia and practitioners in industry to meet and exchange ideas and recent research work on all aspects of wireless communications and signal processing. Following the great success of WCSP'09, WCSP'10, and WCSP'11, the fourth edition of the event, WCSP'12, will be held in Huangshan (Yellow Mountain) city, Anhui Province, China, on October 25-27, 2012. The conference will be sponsored and organized by the National Mobile Communications Research Lab at Southeast University, China, and technically co-sponsored by the IEEE and IEEE Communications Society. It will consist of keynote speeches, technical sessions, and workshops. The technical sessions will present original and fundamental research advances, and the workshops will focus on hot topics in wireless communications and signal processing.

What to Submit: We solicit workshop proposals on new and emerging topics in wireless communications and signal processing. A proposal should focus on a specific theme of current interest and can attract high-quality submissions. Proposals for one-day or half-day workshops to be held in conjunction with the conference are solicited. A proposal can be a maximum of 2 pages long and should clearly identify the theme and specific topics of interest, which define the scope of the workshop. The proposal should also include the workshop chairs and a list of program committee members.

Proposal Submission: Please send workshop proposals in PDF format by April 1, 2012 to the workshop co-chairs, Dr. Nirwan Ansari and Dr. Lingyang Song.
